

Barrington Preservation Society
2016 Plaque Presentation
featuring Maureen Taylor, Photo Detective

Wednesday, May 18, 2016, 7–9 PM
Barrington Senior Center (Lower Level of Library)

Maureen Taylor, Photo Detective:

“Secrets of Your Treasures”

Recognized by the Wall Street Journal as “the nation’s foremost historical photo detective,” Maureen Taylor skillfully demonstrates how to use clothing, jewelry, beards and settings to unlock the mysteries of old photographs.

Houses to be Plaqued:

Abbie E. Rhodes House, 25 Third St. (1891)
Harriet Lee Jackson House, 166 Nayatt Rd. (1913)

Both houses were built as summer cottages as Barrington evolved from an agricultural town into a premier summer colony destination.

A slide show on these houses and presentation of plaques will be followed by Maureen Taylor's special presentation.

---

Please come, and bring a friend to this special free event!

Find Maureen online at: photodetective.com

Find B.P.S. online at: barringtonpreservation.org

